

Frequently Asked Questions

What will we need to bring to the CU Chili Challenge?

XDI will provide the following items for each Credit Union Chili Team:

1. A 10' x 10' canopy
2. Two 8' x 30" tables
3. Two chairs
4. A two-burner propane stove and a propane canister
5. A 9' x 3' banner that will be placed on the front of each cooking booth.
6. One VIP parking pass

The Credit Union Chili Team will provide the following items:

1. Their favorite chili recipe
2. All chili ingredients
3. All cooking utensils (cooking pot, ladle, cutting board, knives, etc.)
4. Artwork for their banner (CU logo, team name, etc.)
5. Booth Decorations

What about extra items in our booth?

Although XDI will provide a propane stove and fuel for the competition, you are allowed to bring along and use any cooking equipment you like. If you have questions regarding any equipment you might want to use, please contact us.

Also, you may provide extra toppings or side items to be served along with your chili. These items will not be considered during the official judging.

The minimum amount of chili required for competition is 2 Gallons. You may make as much chili as you like, as our teams usually serve every last bit of chili during the People's Choice competition.

What is the deadline for registration?

The deadline for initial registration is July 1, 2018.

However, only the online Entry Form needs to be completed by July 1st. The remaining forms and Entry Fee need to be received by July 8th, or upon completion of your internal cookoff event.

Each credit union may enter up to two teams along with the appropriate number of Entry Fees.

What are the artwork requirements for the Team Banner?

Team banner artwork must be received by July 8th.

Banner artwork should be submitted in Adobe PDF (.pdf), Adobe Illustrator (.ai), or EPS (.eps) format. All fonts should be converted to outlines. PDF should be saved as Press Quality.

What if we don't have the resources to create a Team Banner?

Don't worry, XDI can create one for you. Let us know your team name and theme, and send us any logos or artwork you would like to include, and we will design a banner for your team. In order to have your banner completed in time, please provide your team information and logos/artwork by July 8th.
